ENCE717-20 Notes (3/30/2020)

1. For the whole university, the online versions of all classes are officially launched this week.

2. For all graduate courses, Satisfactory/Fail for graduate students, with individual students able to opt in for a regular letter grade if they want. The deadline for opting in is May 12. The campus is setting up a web site for students to exercise their option; more will be forthcoming on this once the site is up and running.

3. For the ENCE717 class, use the usual way to deliver homework and final exam, digital copy by email before deadline as the previous homework’s submissions.

4. Due to cancellation of future pre-recording arrangement announced today, pre-recording sessions will only cover the classes of 3/31 and 4/7. 5:00-6:00 of those two days will be used as office hours conducted in ZOOM sessions to maintain the interaction.

5. Starting from 4/14 and on, all classes (4/14, 4/21, 4/28, 5/50 will be taught online synchronously in ZOOM and also recorded for future view (asynchronous as the campus’ strong preference). Pending on the experiment results on 3/31 and 4/7, I may reserve certain time for interactive Q&A starting from the 4/14 week.

6. For the final exam, I will reserve certain time during the ZOOM session to have Ms. Yifan Zhu to conduct a session on advanced features of CSiBridge. I will announce it later. The deadline for final exam submission is still 5/15.