

"Sunlight"
May Sachstein

Today it shines
For the song
sings "yo vuelvo"
But
Does it really shine
Or just reflect on the surface?

Will there ever be again
a day
so full
That even the rain will ascend?

a mind once told me a heart,
a friend
above all with a glow - Hold love in your hand
Then even the sun
can not fail.

To see the light?
