

"Election Night"
Jack Levine

It's over - now did we win or lose,
It's the same
Life repeating over and over again;
Who cares?
Watch it as thus:
Too little too late too much
Too much too soon
To win or to lose
Tricks the fate.

We campaigned - We campaigned!
How could we lose.

We drink and we lose
We wine and we lust
What to?
The election; it will result
In a care's overburden
No joys - too involved
Too any involved as yet there remains
A duty fulfilled or delayed
Or a power desired thrown down.

The hat that belongs, placed
Not the body that's sold
A remiss
Where you can use it to strengthen your feet
And your mind
Can create -
Election night.
